

Sara Spade

Jools Holland says: "She has a fantastic voice - her band makes me want to dance... they have that magical element which it's almost impossible to put your finger on!" With her magical blend of vintage ukulele jazz and pop-swing originals, Sara's music breaks boundaries. Her third album Twinwood, released on Next Door Records, is a breath of fresh air.

Sara Spade & The Roaring Twenties

Sara Spade & The Roaring Twenties is a cabaret style music show designed for pure fun, blasting away the blues by time traveling to the 1920s and back again with Sara and her band.

Along the way will be some century hopping capers to juxtapose the jazz age and tunes of the twenty twenties. Try saying that with a few Prohibition Cocktails inside you!

From
Flea Hop to Tik Tok
Wireless to Wifi
Cakewalk to WAP

We've come a long way... or have we?

Leave all your troubles at the door and enter a 1920s world of hedonism, ebullience and above all, roaring!

See you at the juice joint in your glad rags. It will be the cat's pyjamas!

Selected Past Appearances

Twinwood, Bedfordshire
Bestival, Isle of Wight
Camp Bestival, Dorset
The Green Note, Camden, London
The Ukulele Festival of Great Britain, Cheltenham
Boisdale of Belgravia Residency, Mayfair London
Boisdale of Canary Wharf, London
National Centre For Early Music, York
Vintage Festival, Oxfordshire
Wilderness Festival, Oxfordshire
Ropetackle Arts Centre, Shoreham
The Stables , Milton Keynes

More Raves

"Takes a lot to make a tired old vicar hit the dance floor. Loved it."
Reverend Richard Coles Cleric, broadcaster and former Communist.

"A marvellous and highly entertaining evening. Well done."
Julian Fellowes, Best-selling Author and writer and producer of Downton Abbey.

"Sara Spade? Smashing. Can't get enough of her!"
Ranald MacDonald of Clanranald (proprietor, Boisdale Club).

"Simply irresistible...a special one-off talent."
BBC Radio London's Larry Pryce.